GLOBAL WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP FORUM™

What some of our attendees have said...

Primary resource for women in the workplace

"The Global Women's Leadership Forum™ is an organization for current and next generation leaders. If you need a place where favorable situations thrive and where women band together and create phenomenal opportunities for each other... then the Global Women's Leadership Forum™ is for you."

Toni Carter, Human Resources, Senior Inclusion & Diversity ~ Motorola, Inc.

"I found the Global Women's Leadership Forum to be a unique opportunity to benchmark other women's affinity groups and find new ideas and ways to strengthen our own affinity group. In addition, the networking contacts that were made have been invaluable and I have tapped in to several since the last Forum. Attending the Forum was time well spent."

Faith Slowinski, Director, Diversity & Inclusion Molex, Inc.

"This forum was an opportunity to recharge/renew and reconnect with other women. Some of my key learnings were: Plan your career and take control of it; Understand the business and Be a mentor- give back, lift others as we climb. One of my favorite quotes was that we can be "Illuminators – light the path for women behind us." I have really taken this to heart and have sought ways to do this at work and in my personal life.

Ann Manikas VP, Leadership and Organizational Development ITW

The Global Women's Leadership Forum™ is an advocate for the advancement of all women. Through increased networking, community outreach, and personal/professional development, the Global Women's Leadership Forum™ makes a significant contribution to the success of professional working women by supporting women's leadership networks. We empower, inspire, educate, and assist leaders of these networks so that they, in turn, can help each woman within their membership reach and demonstrate her full potential.

You will want to be a part of our next event.

GLOBAL WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP FORUM™

Our Purpose

The Global Women's Leadership Forum™ actively supports the acceleration and advancement of women in business by providing resources and supporting and connecting leaders of professional women's networks across all industries regionally, nationally, and internationally. Our Purpose is to build and sustain a network of women in Fortune 500 companies, at the level of Director or higher, who actively participate in the Women's Leadership Networks within those companies.

Through collective dialogue, the network of the Global Women's Leadership Forum™ will include support strategies, discuss best practices for women in leadership, and help create strategic plans for the acceleration of women in the workplace. By extending and expanding the opportunity for increased community and knowledge for women in business, the Global Women's Leadership Forum™ will enable women in leadership networks to grow, share, and encourage the success AND significance of all women.

“We are delighted to be a founding sponsor of this dynamic, passionate organization because of the opportunity to build and strengthen our company's women's leadership network through best practices.”

Pat Harris, Global Chief Diversity Officer,
McDonald's Corporation
